AT the Court at Windsor, the 22d of August 1724.

PRESENT,

The King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

His Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to Order, that the Parliament which ſtands prorogued to Thurſday the 27th of this Inſtant Auguſt, ſhould be further prorogued to Thurſday the 24th of September next.

Turin, Aug. 23, N. S. Yeſterday the Count de Geneuill, Maſter of the Horſe to the Prince of Piedmont, arrived at Rivoli from Savoy, being diſpatched by his Majeſty to inform the Queen, that on Saturday the 19th Inſtant the Princeſs of Piedmont embarked at Morges, but the Lake becoming very rough by a ſudden Wind, it was thought proper that the Princeſs ſhould return aſhore and ſtay at Morges that Night. The next Day, at Ten in the Morning, her Royal Highneſs arrived at Thonon; and about an Hour after, the Marriage Ceremony was performed by the Titular Biſhop of Geneva. It is ſaid her Royal Highneſs's Siſter whom ſhe has brought with her into Savoy, is to be educated in a Convent at Annecy. It is uncertain when the King will arrive here; but it is thought it will be as ſoon as poſſible, by reaſon of the extraordinary Expence his Majeſty is at in Savoy; where, notwithſtanding the great Price and Scarcity of Proviſions, his Majeſty is ſerved with great Magnificence. This Morning a Proclamation was made here by Sound of Trumpet, by which the Chief of each Family (having the Small Pox in it) is commanded to give in to the Intendant-General of the Police, a particular Account of the Age, Sex, and Number of all ſuch Perſons as are at preſent ill of that Diſtemper; which Order is alſo fixed to the Corner of every Street. This Account is to be ſent to his Majeſty, who it is ſuppoſed will thereupon conſult whether the Prince of Piedmont, who has not had the Small Pox, may venture to come with the Court hither yet. The Marqueſs d'Entraves, who was ſent by his Majeſty to Rothembourg, in order to wait upon the Princeſs of Piedmont into Savoy, was preſented by the Prince of Rhinſeltz with his Picture ſet with Diamonds, a Couple of fine Horſes with rich Furniture, and a Toilet Equipage of Plate for his Lady.

Madrid, Aug. 25, N. S. On the 22d Inſtant in the Morning, a Fever, with which King Lewis was attacked laſt Week, appeared to be the Small Pox, which is come out in great Abundance; but
